NEW DRIFT OF EVIDENCE

Relations Betwoen Judge Holt and the Throckmortons to Come Out.

It Was Led Up to by a Question to Mrs. Briggs and the Court Overruled the Objection.

Beginning with this morning, a new turn may be expected to be taken in the Holt will trial, and testimony will doubt less be now produced to show the relations that existed between the former judge advocate and the respective contestants for the large estate he left at his death. This probable road has been mapped out by the ruling of Judge Bradley yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Emma S. Briggs was on the stand. Judge Wilson asked the witness to tell what she knew of the feelings that existed between Judge Holt and the Throckmortons in the latter years of the former's life. The question was objected to by Mr. Darlington,

The question and the objection were the picket firings which began a legal struggle hat ended with the closing of the court Beginning with the asking of the ques tion of Mrs. Briggs, the great crowd of lawyers and spectators that fined the railing and crowded to the very doors of the courtroom were instructed by the argument of counsel rather than entertained by the testimony of witnesses, for no more questions were asked.

Mr. Darlington objected to the question because of his irrelevancy and said that some time should have been specified by opposing counsel in asking the question.

Mr. Worthington maintained, arguing at length and strengthening himself with the citation of a large number of authorities, that the presumption existed of revocation. The statements and remarks made by Judge Holt, he maintained, should be admitted to show that such was his intention and that such in fact really had been done. Mr. Darlington again rallied to the de-use of his objection with a deal of eloqueuec and numberless authorities. At the close Judge Bradley interposed and said: "In order to maintain the ends of justice all the evidence that will throw any light on the will or where it came from should be received. The objection is therefore overruled."

Mr. Darlington reserved an exception. The witness, who had meanwhile ocspied the chair during the whole of the long debate, was excused to resume ber testimony at the opening of court this morn-

Before the adjournment of court, how ever. Judge Bradley, at the instance of one of the lawyers in the case, cautioned the jurors not to read the accounts of the trial as published in the newspapers of the "Reporters very often get things right. said be, "perhaps oftener than any one else. Yet they are not infallible. Reports are often erroneous and colored, and will not do for a juror to depend upon. The best way is to trust yourselves for the evidence as you will hear it, and I would. therefore, advise you to read nothing of the trial while it is in progress."

There were but three witnesses on the stand yesterday. They were Col. Barr. whose examination begun the day before was continued; Hon. Horatio King, ex-Postmaster General, and Mrs. Barr, All of the witnesses said that in their opinions Judge Holt did not execute the alleged will.

FINE NOT SUFFICIENT.

Railroad Commissioners Oppose the Interstate Commerce Law Change. The Vice President laid before the Senate yesterday afternoon the resolutions of the Eighth Anoual National Convention of Railroad Commissioners, held in this city May 19 and 20.

The commissioners protest against the

The commissioners protest against the change proposed to be made to the inter-state Commerce Act by amending Section 10 so as to eliminate imprisonment and provide punishment by fine only, as pro-vided in a bill now pending in Congress. This section has only been given force and effect within a recent period by a Supreme Court decision, and the resolu tion asserts that it is better to give it a fair trial before changing its provisions.

A MORAL FOR WOMEN.

A Good Maxim, Either In War or Housekeeping,

AND TRUE EVERYWHERE.

A famous marksman says the most wonderful shooting is done when your eyes see nothing but the mark. In target-shooting when you see only the buil's eye—the "gold," and everything else fades away out of sight, then expects a wonderfully good, should be a support and the same and the same and the same areas and the same areas are same as a support of the same areas and the same areas are same as a same areas and the same areas are same as a same areas.

The same thing is true in all the practical affairs of life. Have just one single aim in view and the chances are you'll hit the mark. That's the way to succeed the truthing that the way to succeed. hit the mark. That's the way to succeed in anything; that's the way to accomplish great things; to have one purpose in mind and stick to it, and give all the thoughts and all the energies to accomplish that one object; that means success. It's the same in everything; in business, in housekeeping, in mechanics,—concentrating all the powers of the mind on one point means success.

NAPOLEON'S MAXIM

Napoleon's famous maxim "always con centrate your forces; never divide them," made him the conqueror of Europe. His enemies spread out their bigger armies but he gathered his together and struck at one point and conquered. At the last, when he neglected his own advice, and his own forces became divided, he was himself conquered. onquered.

TRUE IN BUSINESS AND HOUSE-KEEPING. In business a man gives all his mied to one line of trade and gains a sough fortune; then he "spreads" out in several directions, and loses everything. In housekeeping when you try to do everything at keeping when you try to do everything at once, nothing gets done; but by putting all the thoughts on one thing at a time, you accomplish a heap of work. There's always a heap more to do; but anyway if you stick to one thing, something gets

WHERE.

In mechanics, when anyone invents a machine to do several different things the chances are it won't do any of them well. Look at some of these wonerful combination household contrivances; knife-corkscrew-ice-pick-tackhammer-screw-driver-stove-lifter-carpet stretcher all in one tool. Such a tool i likely to be worse than useless. The likely to be worse than useless. The practical bousewise or man about bouse says: "Give fife a good hammer or a good lack-knife, something that does just one thing and does it well."

An invention intended to do several different things at once is likely to miss

by a regularly graduated physician who has made a life study of this subject. DISCOURAGED WOMEN.

Any woman who is discouraged with suffering and useless dectoring, if she will write the particulars of her case to Dr. R. V. Pierce, addressing him to the above-mentioned institution, will receive from him free of charge, sensible and fatherly professional advice and directions for home-treatment by which, without the aid of a physician, she may cure herself if her trouble is curable. And the records show that many thousands of cases pronounced incurable by doctors, have been completely and permanently cured by Dr. Pierce's home-treatment by correspondence.

cured by Dr. Pierce's home-treatment by correspondence.

Mrs. Ida Coventry, Huntsville, Logan Co., O., writes: "I had 'female weakness' very bad-in bed most of the time, dragging down pains through my back and hips: no appetite: no energy. The family physician was treating me tor liver complaint. I did not get any better under that treatment, so I thought that I would try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I felt better before I had used one bottle of each. I continued their use until I took six bottles of each. In three months' time I felt so well I did not think it necessary to take any more. In childbirth it does what Dr. Pierce recommends it to do." Mrs. Fred Kempson, Cambria, Hillsdale Co., Mich., writes: "When I began to take your medicine I could not do any Co., Mich., writes: "When I began to take your medicine I could not do any work to speak of. I was in such misery that many times, as I lay down for the night, have I prayed that I might never see the rising of autother sun. It was almost death to me to stand on my feet.

"When I began using your medicines, I weighed 103 pounds. I have taken in all, ten bottles of your for. Pierce's Pavorite Prescription, six of "Golden Medical Discovery," and some of your 'Extract of Smart-Weed.' Today I am well, and weigh 148 1-2 pounds, and am doing the work for my family of nine."

weigh 148 1-2 pounds, and am doing the work for my family of nine."

Mrs. C. P. Miller. No. 1628 Frederick avenue, 8t. Joseph. Mo., writes. "I cannot say enough in praise of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as it has done me a world of good and undoubtedly saved my baby's life, as I came near losing him twice before the proper time."

Mrs. Annie B. Fitch, Johnstown, Cambria Co., Pa., writes. "I have been taking Dr. Price's Favorite Prescription—three bottle of it and am getting well fast; I can do my own work, which I have not done for almost two years, I do my own washing and all of my house work. I have gained about six pounds taking your remedy. You cannot know how glad I am that I tried your 'Favorite Prescription."

Miss Lauretta McNees, of Box 723, Reno. Washoe Co., Nev. writes: "I have discontinued taking br. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and will not need any more. Last month I had no pain at all, and worked every day without any inconven-ience whatever. It was the first time I never had any pain during the period. I cannot say too much for your medicines, especially the 'Favorite Prescription' and all of them; but when a man of brains and experience puts all his mind and powers on an invention to accomplish just one particular thing, his invention is likely to do that one thing thoroughly and completely.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS.

The same role holds in medicine. That the secret of the wonderful success of Dr. R. V. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for women. It heals and strengthens the organs distinctly feminine. It prevents the weakness and cures the diseases vents the weakness and cures the diseases peculiar to women. It is not intended for any other purpose; it is not a panacea for all sorts of troubles; its sole object is to prevent and cure this que class of disorders and weaknesses, and it fulfills this one purpose absolutely and completely as no other medicine has ever done. It directly strengthens, heals and builds up the healthy condition of the delicate feminine organism, thos reaching the internal source of female aliments; and curing radically and permanently all derangeing radically and permanently all derange ments and onlicality conditions. It stop-debilitating drains; cures inflammation and electation; restores functional regu-larity; imparts vigor and elasticity to the tissues and ligaments; and promotes a sound, normal, healthy condition.

A BLESSING TO SENSITIVE WOMEN. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has done away with all necessity of the embarrassing "examinations" and "local treatment" so dreaded by modestly sensitive women; and which except in very rare in-stances is totally needless and useless. Such treatment frequently does more harm than good; at best it is a mere saperficial make-shift and nineteen times in twenty results in utter failure. This is a striking contrast to the results of Dr. Pierce's pracice, which is a period of nearly thirty years and the treatment of more than two hundred and fifty thousand women, shows a record

For nearly thirty years Dr. Plerce has been chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y., and has attained an eminence second tonone in his profession as aspecialist in diseases of women. The fruits of his uncqualed experience are embodied in the Favorite Prescription," the unfuling belper and strengthener of women in every critical

FOR MOTHERS

Prospective mothers and nursing mothers will find the "Prescription" a wonderful sustainer and help in their time of trial and of early motherhood. Taken early during gestation it completely overcomes all the perils of parturition; shortens confine-ment and labor, and divests it of a large degree of pain and discomfort. Foung mothers will insure their own recuperative powers, and abundant healthy nourishment for the child by the use of the "Favorite Prescription" during the nursing period.

REMARKABLE EVIDENCE. The fact that the sales of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription exceed the comwomen is a remarkable evidence of the women is a remarkable evidence of the high esteem in which women hold this wonder-working remedy, and its unex-ampled success. It is the only medicine on the market adapted specially to the intricate and delicate organism of women,

'Pleasant Pellets.' I know of a lady in a family way who took one bottle of your 'Favorite Prescription' and she says she was not sick like she was with her first haby. This was her second baby, She thinks it a grand medicine, and so do I."

Mrs. S. F. Zachary, Columbia, Fluvanna Co., Va., writes: "I hurt myseif about Co., Va., writes: co., va., writes. "I hart myself about seventeen years ago lifting more than my strength would allow, which caused displacement of internal organs, after which time I was a complete myslid. I could hardly get about the house and was confined to my bed a good portion of the time. Under the treatment of the best physicians our town could afford, I took a quantity of medicine which seemed to do me no good. Some one recommended Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and before I had taken one bottle there was a change for the better. My husband then got Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and I took it in connection with the 'Favorite Prescription.' These medicines have been, through the blessing of God, the means of my recovery. I continued your medicine until I felt that there was no longer any need of it. I have been rewarded for giving your medicines a fair trial.'

A WONDERFUL BOOK FREE. All women should possess the complete in-formation about themselves, which is con-tained in Dr. Pierce's free book, "The Peo-ple's Common Sense Medical Adviser." It is a large thousand-and-eight-page book; a perfect medical library in one volume with more than three bundred illustrations. Several chapters are devoted to the special physiology and the diseases peculiar to women. It is written in plain interesting language. It has had a larger sale than any other medical work ever printed; six hundred and eighty thousand copies were sold at $1.50 each. The profit on were sold at $1.50 each. The profit on this phenomenal sale enables Dr. Pierce to issue the present edition of half-amillion copies absolutely free to any one who will send the little COUPON NUMBER in this paragraph, with 21 cents in one-cent stamps (to defray the expenses of mailing only), to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. BOSWELL'S QUEER CRIME

Sold the Family Burial Lots to Which He Had No Title. .

Stranger Interred There-When the Fraud Was Discovered the Body Had to Be Disinterred.

Alphonso Boswell, under arrest for pass ng forged checks, in addition to other of fenses, was arraigned in Judge Miller's olice court yesterday afterno

The charge brought against him vester day by Detectives Carter and Gallaher I an addition to the aircady long list. I is alleged that he defrauded Mr. George A. Burch, the Georgetown undertaker, out of $30 by false pretenses, in selling him two burial sites in the Boswell family lot in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Burch went upon the witness stand after Boswell had pleaded not guilty, and testified that on May 31 last, the prisoner came to him and represented that he was the last of the Boswell heirs and as such had two sites in the burying lot at Oak Hill which he wished to sell.

Undertaker Burch, who was also one of the directors of the cemetery in question, did not know Boswell, and informed him that if he would establish his identity and show that he had the right to dispose of the two sites, he. Burch, would purchase them for $30. Boswell then went away, but returned with a letter from Dr. Armsted Peter, of Georgetown. The latter stated that Bos-well was the last of the heirs and had a perfect night to sell the burnal sites. On the witness stand today Dr. Peter denied that he had written this commu nication or that he knew Boswell. Mr. Burch, upon receiving the letter and believing it to be genuine, bought the grave sites and paid Boswell the $30 agreed upon. Later Mr. Burch sold one of the sites to a Georgetown family and a member thereof was buried there alongside of the tail monument which marks the last resting place of Frederick Boswell, late collector of District taxes. Mr. Burch remained in ignorance of the rue state of affairs until Miss Boswell, a spinster sister of the prisoper, died in a Georgetown institution known as the Baptist Home. Then her piece went to Oak Hill to arrange for the burial and found that a stranger had been interred in the family lot.

An investigation followed and it was shown that Alphonso Boswell had no right to seil the sites. It then cost Mr. Burch $107 to disinter the stranger he had buried there and purchase a new site. Later Boswell's brother in New York was heard from, and he stated that Alphonso had no right to sell the graveyard property. It also developed that he had forged the name of Dr. Peter in the transaction and the case was placed in the hands of the

This evidence was brought out in court yesterday, and when Judge Miller asked Boswell to make a statement he went upon the stand and said:

"Your honor, I have been on a pro-tracted spree for four weeks and my brain has been clouded. It is not clear yet. I will show that this charge is all wrong. I desire to waive an examination. By the time the case comes up for trial in the upper court I will be ready to explain." Additional bonds were fixed at $500, and Boswell went back to his cell in Jail.
